Sir,

I have the honour to state that the Basti of Sri Parswanath Devaru at Henikeri in the Sagar Taluk, is endowed with Inam lands to the extent of 36 acres and 24 gunthas assessed at Rs 124/12/- with a light jodi of Rs 7/- as per particulars shown in the appended statement. These lands are under the management of one , residents of Hanjankoppa in Sagar Taluk, who is to have come into possession of them in the year 1901-02 from his father. Survey No: 3 is in the possession of another man called Devaraja alias Devarajasetti, who cultivates the land and takes the produce, in return for which he performs puja to the deity, besides paying a rent in cash of Rs 10/- to the Valmiatdar. For this land and for the other survey numbers, Valmiatdar Devaya receives according to his own statement a rent of 59 Khandies of paddy and Rs 43·4·0 in cash on the whole. As the value of the paddy is stated to be Rs 2/- per Khandy on an average, the Valmiatdar's average annual income comes to about Rs 161·4·0.

ssion

2. Though in receipt of such a large income the Valmiatdar does not pay for the services in the temple, but is stated to be maintaining a wonderful room in it since the last Karthika. The Valiyat-daru's own statement is that he has not delivered padi for Amilāpadi to the pujari for some years, as he had to incur heavy expenditure on account of the repairs of the Bashi but that, nevertheless, he has paid for expenses connected with Special — Services in the temple.

But the pujari states that the Special Services &c. have been performed at the expense of the devotees.

3. Valiyatdaru Devagya alleges that he has spent — about Rs 1800/- for the repairs of the temple and Rs 800/- for the consecration of the therein and that in order to meet this expenditure he has borrowed Rs 1000/- as the surplus saved from the income derived from the lands and the contributions collected from the devotees were found to be insufficient He produced different accounts at different times in support of his allegation, but the Amildar reports that he does not believe that these accounts are accurate, especially as they appear to have been got ready after reminders issued from the Taluk office. From the statement of Venaya himself given before the Amildar on the 11th April 1908, it is clear that he was not in the habit of keeping regular accounts. Besides, according to his own statement, the accounts now produced by him contain several items of expenditure which have never been actually incurred. His allegation that he has spent so large a sum for the repairs of the basti &c. has, therefore, to be taken at a discount.

4. It is, however, reported that he has, as a matter of fact, repaired the basti with a thatched roof, at some expense, and for this reason it is considered inexpedient to exclude him totally from the management of the temple affairs; but at the same time, in the interests of the temple, it does not seem desirable to allow the affairs to continue in the sole management of the Vahivatdar. I accordingly propose to appoint the supervision of the affairs this temple Dharmadarsies of whom Devagya will be one, who will be required to keep correct accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the temple which will be produced for examination of the Government authorities whenever required. If this proposal meet with the approval of Government, I would suggest that the undermentioned five persons may be appointed Dharmadarsies, the fact of their appointment being notified in the gazette.

1. Devaiya of Haengankoppa.
2. Veerabhadrayya, patel of Kiravasi.
3. Bayappa bin Mangappa of Hemkeri.
4. Mangappa, patel of Chinnali.
5. Nyamayya Gowda of Madaon.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
R. S. [illegible]
Deputy Commissioner,
Shimoga District.
